Spending $90 million to set up a new campus with a perfect infrastructure and well-equipped facilities for quality learning is indeed a big investment. Such commitment and big investment only show one thing – Yang Berbahagia Dato' Jeffery Cheah's (The Group Managing Director) commitment towards education and society.

His seriousness shows that he is not out to make money but more to serve the society as there are only a few private institutions which are operating in compliance with the requirements of the Education Ministry and to accommodate the vast number of students seeking higher education.

He is quoted as saying that "no investment is too big when it comes to educating our children who will one day be the leaders and entrepreneurs of our nation", during the official ground-breaking ceremony of Sunway College on March 9, at Bandar Sunway.

The ground-breaking ceremony of the new campus was performed by YB Dato' Seri Anwar Ibrahim the Minister of Education. Among the distinguished guests were Malaysia's special envoy to the United Nations who is also the Chairman of Sunway College, Datuk Musa Hitam and Menteri Besar of Selangor Tan Sri Dato' Haji Muhammad bin Haji Muhammad Taib.

Earthworks and piling for the new campus has already underway on the 24 acres of land overlooking a magnificent lake. The first phase which has a built-up area of 180,000 square feet is due to be completed in 1992. It will consist of a five-storey academic block equipped with lecture halls, theatres, libraries and drawing and technical rooms.

The whole outlook of the new Sunway College will be complete with the building of the 780,000 square feet of the second phase which has a 13-storey hostel and an additional academic block which include lecture halls, theatres, laboratories and libraries.

The new campus will be able to accommodate 8,000 full-time students upon completion and enrolment is expected to commence in late 1992.
