A ceremony to present a contribution of books to the Tun Hussein Onn Library at Sunway College was held on 2 March. The presentation of 58 books costing RM6,000 was made by Mr David Guard, Senior Adviser, MABECS (Malaysian British Educational Cooperation Services Sdn Bhd) to Mr Lee Weng Keng, Director of Sunway College.

This fine collection of books donated, covers hospitality management and the leisure industry. Since 1992, the Tun Hussein Onn Library has received more than 340 books with a total value of over RM20,000 from MABECS.

Another latest addition to the 55,000 sq. ft. Library is the Multimedia Resource Centre which is equipped with technology for the 21st century. The Library software is Y2K compliant and has the Z39.5 communications protocol.

Also present at the book presentation ceremony, from MABECS, were Mrs Guard and Ms Nimmi Prabhakar, Counsellor and from the College, Mrs Khoo Siew Mun, Chief Librarian and Dr Tan Toh Wah, Academic Director.
