

THE LATE TUN HUSSEIN ONN

The news of the death of Tun Hussein Onn was received with shock and grief by all Malaysians.

Many expressed their sympathies for a statesman they loved and respected so much. He was rightly praised as a man with sincerity, integrity and dignity.

His humble and kind words took him closer to the masses. His interest in the development of advance education in his country brought him closer to Sunway College.

As Chairman, the late Tun Hussein Onn played an important role in the gradual development of the College to a reputable institution of higher learning.

His services and his contribution will be long remembered by every Malaysians, more so by all those who are associated with the College.

