Message From The Chancellor

Y. Bhg.
Tan Sri Dato' Seri
Dr. Jeffrey Cheah, AO

Founder and Chairman
Sunway University

I would like to extend a hearty congratulations to the graduating class of 2011 on your achievement. This is definitely a significant and meaningful milestone for all 405 of you, and also for your parents and lecturers who have undoubtedly provided you with unwavering support through the years.

I would like to commend our graduates, who come from a wide range of disciplines including the Sunway University Business School, the School of Computer Technology, the School of Creative Arts and Communication, the School of Health and Natural Sciences and the School of Hospitality, Tourism and Leisure Management, for making this journey with us to reach this moment of accomplishment. Over the course of your programme, I believe you have had many memorable moments, and I hope that as you move towards becoming professionals in the workplace, you will take these memories along with you.

As graduates of Sunway University, you are equipped with both academic credentials and a good understanding of the ever evolving world around you. Our commitment to excellence in education stems from the firm belief that education provides the foundation for an accomplished nation. It is the main reason for our perseverance and determination in providing education of the highest quality to all who pass through our doors.

You are now part of the esteemed Sunway University alumni and having been given the opportunity to receive quality higher education, I hope that as you leave us, you will also work to give back to society, whatever your future endeavours. You now join the ranks of previous graduates who have gone on to scale great heights and contribute to the growth of the nation.

Now fully operating under the Jeffrey Cheah Foundation, all proceeds from Sunway University are reinvested and go towards upgrading the institution as well as the provision of scholarship funds. The Foundation carries on the mandate of the Sunway Education Trust which, since its inception, has given out more than RM66 million in scholarships to deserving and needy students. The Foundation was launched in March 2010 by the Prime Minister of Malaysia in the presence of its Royal Patron H.R.H. The Sultan of Selangor and will continue to fund scholarships and grants to students entering Sunway University.

I believe I speak on behalf of all parents and teachers when I say that we are very proud of this year's graduates. You are now ready to utilise the knowledge and skills you've acquired here to enrich the world. Whatever direction your life may take, these skills that you have acquired and developed here will stand you in good stead, not only in your working and professional life but generally.

Be proud of what you have worked to accomplish and remember those who have supported you to reach this milestone in your lives. I wish you every success as you enter the next exciting stage of your life and career.

Congratulations once again.

Thank you.

Message From The Vice-Chancellor

Professor
Robert Bignall

Chair of the Academic Board

It is my great pleasure to congratulate the graduates who are being presented today to our Pro-Chancellor, Y. Bhg. Tan Sri Dato' Dr. Ramon Navaratnam who is presiding on behalf of our Chancellor. Your achievements are yours alone, but others have contributed to your success and must share in your joy. Your families have worked hard to support you during your studies, and your lecturers have given you the encouragement and guidance that has enabled you to excel.

When our Chancellor, Y. Bhg. Tan Sri Dato' Seri Dr. Jeffrey Cheah, founded an institution called Sunway College in 1986, his vision was that it would provide quality education at an affordable cost to young Malaysians who might otherwise have missed the opportunity for such advancement. Not only has that vision been realised, it has been strongly reinforced by the establishment of the Jeffrey Cheah Foundation, which ensures that all of the proceeds of our institution are used to support its development and to provide scholarships.

Sunway College started in 1987 with just 200 students, but it has grown since then in both size and stature. In 2004 it was elevated by the Ministry of Higher Education, Malaysia to the status of a University College. The University College nevertheless realised the importance of independently guaranteeing academic quality. It therefore set out to ensure that its degrees were benchmarked against the standards of a world class university, so that they would receive the international recognition that is so vital for graduates in today's borderless world. In 2006, an affiliation agreement was signed with Lancaster University. Through stringent quality assurance procedures, our degrees conform to the high standards of a first class British university and to those of the United Kingdom Quality Assurance Agency, as well as those of the Malaysian Qualifications Agency.

As a testament to the international standard that they have achieved, the graduates of these validated programmes receive a degree scroll from Sunway together with a degree scroll from Lancaster. This is the fourth graduation ceremony at which these dual degrees are being awarded. It also has the distinction of being our first graduation as Sunway University, given that Sunway University College was upgraded to a university at the start of this year.

We are honoured today by the presence of Lancaster Pro-Vice-Chancellor, Professor Steve Bradley, who will be presenting Lancaster University scrolls on behalf of Sir Christian Bonington CBE, the Chancellor of Lancaster University, to those graduates who are eligible to receive them.

In 2010, the Ministry of Higher Education published the outcome of SETARA 2009, its rating exercise for Malaysian higher education institutions. The high standard of teaching and learning at Sunway University is reflected in our Tier 5 rating, which places us along side the very best universities in the country and confirms the value of the degrees and diplomas that are being awarded today.

For those graduates who are starting your careers, I hope that you will take pride in being an alumnus of Sunway University and keep in touch through the Sunway Alumni. In this rapidly changing world you will find it necessary to keep up to date with further training and development. Life-long learning has become a necessity rather than a luxury. Perhaps, one day, you will return to Sunway University to undertake one of the world-class postgraduate programmes that we offer.

Again, my warmest congratulations to you all and I wish you every success for the future.

The Graduation Ceremony

The formal conferring of university degrees goes back to medieval times in Europe when scrolls signifying their achievements were granted to the graduates with great pomp and ceremony, reinforcing their rank, privileges and responsibilities in a highly stratified society. Graduation ceremonies were very rowdy affairs, however, exemplified by the lowering of a large wooden spoon from the balcony in the Senate House in Cambridge, to the graduate who came bottom of the class in the Mathematics Tripos.

Nowadays, such behaviour is frowned upon and the ceremonies have the dignity which befits the occasion. Special ceremonial robes are worn signifying, in the case of degrees, status as a bachelor, master or doctor, and the hoods, derived from medieval dress, signify the discipline or disciplinary group of the degree. A sash rather than a hood, worn over a black gown, signifies a diploma.

Academic Dress

The academic dress adopted by universities of the Commonwealth follows the style of Oxford or Cambridge. Sunway University has adopted the Oxford style which, for bachelors, has a black gown and hood, the hood being lined with satin. The gown helps to distinguish between bachelors and masters but it is the colour of the lining of the hood that signifies the discipline group. The following colours are used to represent degrees in the respective Schools in Sunway:

School of Creative Arts and Communication

- Navy Blue

School of Computer Technology

- Mauve

School of Health and Natural Sciences

- Spring Green

School of Hospitality, Tourism and Leisure Management

- Silver

Sunway University Business School

- Royal Fuchsia

The same colours are used in signifying diplomas, but instead of a hood a sash is worn.

The Coat of Arms

Responsibility for the granting of Coats of Arms has rested with the College of Arms in London since AD1484. Applicants are considered by the Garter King of Arms, and if he deems the individual, family or organisation to be worthy of this distinction then the Arms are duly granted. Registers are maintained to ensure that new designs are unique and that existing designs are protected.

In 2005, the Board of Sunway University (previously Sunway University College) resolved to seek Arms from the College of Arms and in May 2006, a grant of Arms to Sunway was made.

The main elements of a Coat of Arms are the crest and the shield. Mottoes do not form a part of a grant of arms, but most grantees choose a succinct statement which represents individual or organisational statements of purpose or values.

The Sunway University shield contains three geometric shapes known as "piles", each "charged" with a golden sun. Together, the piles form a "W" and, with the suns, the device suggests the name Sunway. The stylised suns have a slight resemblance to the star on a blue background that appears on the Malaysian flag.

The crest is more obviously symbolic of Malaysia, consisting, as it does, of a Malaysian tiger. It is shown holding a torch, often used in heraldry to symbolise learning and teaching.

Our motto "Fortuna Eruditibus Favet" derives from Louis Pasteur's famous phrase "la chance ne sourit qu'aux esprits bien préparés". Pasteur, commenting in 1855 on Oersted's "chance" discovery of electromagnetism, expressed the view that chance discoveries take place only in the context of a prepared mind. We have adapted the phrase to read "Fortune Favours the Prepared Mind" and this was translated into Latin by Professor Thomas N Mitchell, Provost and Professor of Latin at Trinity College Dublin.

The Mace

In the medieval Europe, the mace was a weapon carried into battle by knights and warlike bishops, reflecting their status and prowess in the field. In the university context, it was carried as a weapon to protect the Chancellor, but it has now evolved into a purely ceremonial device signifying the dignity and authority of the Chancellor.

Designed by Royal Selangor Pewter Sdn Bhd, the Mace is 4.5ft in length. It is made of pewter in bright finish and its interior is supported by teakwood. Relevant parts are highlighted with 24-carat gold plating. The head of the Mace is a shining sun in gold plate and, directly underneath, the University's Coat of Arms is hand chased in relief on 925 sterling silver. The Sunway progressive "S" and hibiscus flower, also hand chased on silver and gold, represent the parentage of Sunway University, and the identity of Malaysia respectively. A crystal stone is set at the beginning of the name of the institution to mark the front section of the Mace.

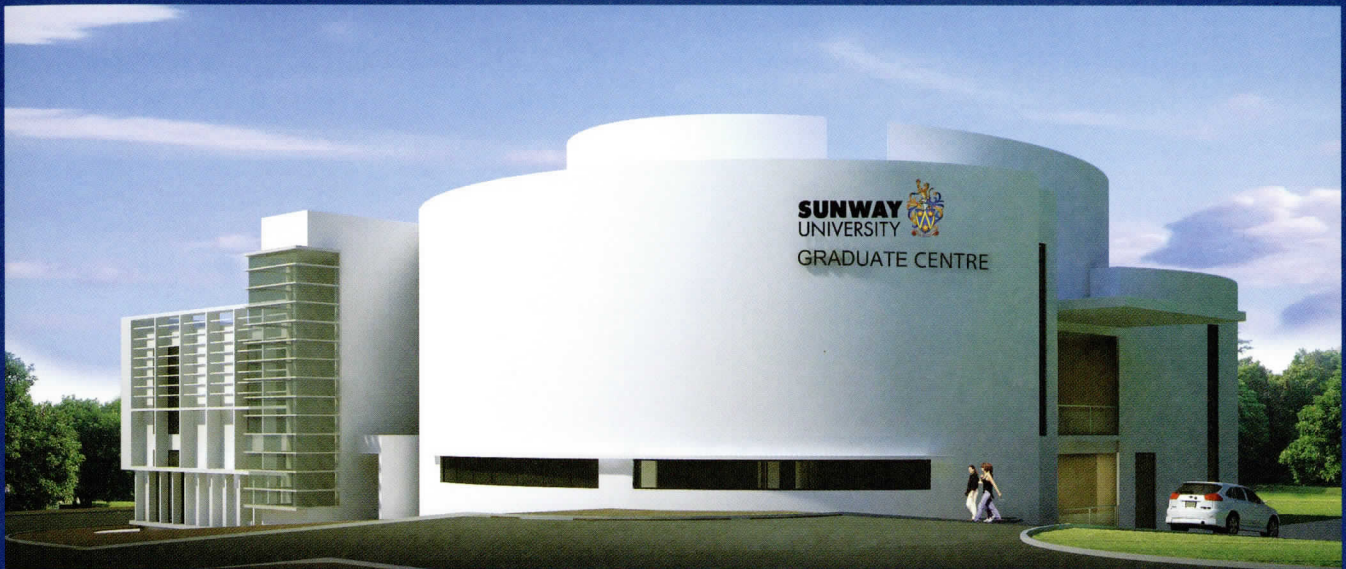

The Mace rests on a nyatoh wood base in mahogany finish to complement the Chancellor's Chair.

The Chancellor's Chair

The Chancellor's chair is made of solid nyatoh wood, and finished in satin mahogany lacquer. The seat, backrest and armrests are wrapped with natural rich brown leather from Germany.

The Coat of Arms of the University, in a highly sculptured relief on a finely textured background, and cast in pewter with gold plating, is placed at the apex of the backrest. The apex itself is modelled on the upper part of the portico of the then Sunway University building.

Sunway University Graduate Centre (Artist's impression) – construction work to be completed by 2012

Sunway University has its origins in Sunway College, founded by Y. Bhg. Tan Sri Dato' Seri Dr. Jeffrey Cheah, AO in 1986 to provide opportunities for young Malaysians to obtain higher education and training at the certificate, diploma and degree levels, especially in areas of national need. The first intake of students in 1987 numbered about 200, enrolled in degree studies leading to bachelor degrees from a number of foreign universities. These courses were delivered through 'twinning' arrangements, pioneered by Sunway College, whereby students spent one or two years in Sunway and then transferred to a foreign university to complete their degrees. Degree programmes of Western Michigan University (WMU) in the US were the first to be introduced and these were followed by twinning arrangements with a number of UK and Australian universities. In the late 1990s 3+0 degree programmes were approved by the Malaysian Government and Sunway College was able to offer the business degrees of Victoria University, Australia, entirely in Malaysia while continuing the 2+2 programmes with WMU.

In addition, the Malaysian Government sanctioned the establishment of branch campuses of foreign universities and Sunway again took the initiative. In an historic agreement with Monash University, Australia, the first branch campus of a foreign university was established at the Sunway campus in 1998. In July 2007, Monash University Sunway campus moved to a magnificent new campus at Jalan Lagoon Selatan, Bandar Sunway. It is currently offering a full range of undergraduate degrees, including medicine through its Jeffrey Cheah School of Medicine, which was established in 2005.

In 2004 Sunway College was elevated to the status of a University College, by the then Minister of Higher Education YB Dato' Dr. Shafie Mohd Salleh, with the power to grant degrees. The courses leading to these degrees are accredited by the Ministry of Higher Education and the Malaysian Qualifications Agency (MQA). Sunway achieved an Excellent rating in the first official rating system of all universities and university colleges in Malaysia, SETARA 2009, conducted by the MQA. After consistently providing high quality education, Sunway was invited to upgrade to University status in December 2010. Sunway University was officially registered in January this year and came into being with the vision of becoming a world-class university.

Once Sunway University achieved its full university status, its popular twinning, pre-University and professional accounting programmes were transferred to a new Sunway College, thus allowing the University to focus on its own undergraduate and postgraduate curricula.

Sunway University currently has a student population of 3,000. It is a veritable global community on campus as around 30% of its students are international, coming from over 70 countries. The Sunway campus is currently undergoing extensive expansion for the benefits of its future students.

Jeffrey Cheah Foundation

Nurturing the Seeds of Wisdom

"A Celebration of Music" - a fund raising charity event organised by the Jeffrey Cheah Foundation.

The fundamental premise of the Jeffrey Cheah Foundation is giving to society, a philosophy that had governed its predecessor, the former Sunway Education Trust Fund, since its inception in 1997.

With the advent of this new special purpose non-profit vehicle, 11 education institutions making up the Sunway Education Group were transferred to the Foundation, including Sunway University, Sunway College, Monash University Sunway campus, Sunway International School and the Jeffrey Cheah School of Medicine.

As a result of its special corporate structure and status as a registered charity, the Foundation is able to continue in perpetuity Y. Bhg. Tan Sri Dato' Seri Dr. Jeffrey Cheah's vision and legacy of giving, while at the same time serving as a catalyst and as a vehicle for others to contribute to the shared cause of education.

Whether through the Trust Fund, or now through the Foundation, operating surpluses are ploughed back into the academic institutions or disbursed as scholarships and research grants, ensuring that education of the highest quality is supported and sustained.

Governed by a distinguished board of trustees, the Foundation aims to safeguard the institutions under its care for the purpose of providing an excellent and affordable education at the highest level, including education for those that come from disadvantaged backgrounds. There is thus a means, through scholarships, for present and future generations of deserving students to succeed. To date, more than RM66 million in scholarships have been awarded to thousands of Malaysian students in various fields of study.

This unique structure is a first of its kind in Malaysia for private education institutions, and modelled after the structure of some of the oldest and most eminent universities in the world, one being Harvard University.

Early in 2005 Sunway and Lancaster University in the UK commenced discussions on how the two institutions might co-operate and in the course of these discussions, which extended over one year, the concept of joint degrees was explored. Lancaster conducted an institutional review in March 2006, which involved a site visit by senior academics from the University and a senior academic from the University of Sussex. As a result, in September 2006, Lancaster approved the signing of an affiliation agreement between the two institutions. The agreement provides for the validation of Sunway degrees by the Senate of Lancaster University following site visits by course consultants and lengthy panel discussions by video conference. Sunway University students who successfully complete an honours degree course are awarded both Sunway and Lancaster degrees, with separate scrolls from each institution.

Lancaster University, founded in 1964, is one of Britain's best research and teaching universities. Lancaster has strengthened its position in the elite group of top ten universities in the UK in the authoritative Times Good University Guide 2012, ranking 9th out of over 130 universities.

Lancaster is consistently in the top ten of UK universities in the major league tables which measure quality across criteria such as teaching, employability, research and student satisfaction. Recently, The Guardian ranked Lancaster 7th place and, in the Complete University Guide, Lancaster is ranked 9th. These league tables show that Lancaster University is highly respected, and its graduates are targeted by the largest and leading employers.

In Sunway University, which has the power to award its own degrees, it is important to be able to satisfy ourselves, our students, and their parents, that the degree courses that we offer are of the highest international standard. We are pleased that we have been able to satisfy the very stringent criteria that have been set by Lancaster University in its institutional review and the validation of our degrees. We continue to look forward to delivering our degree programmes in the knowledge that they have been validated by a first class British university in accordance with its own quality assurance protocols and those of the UK Quality Assurance Agency.

Postgraduate Programmes in collaboration with Lancaster

In 2009 Sunway introduced several new masters programmes. These courses were developed in collaboration with Lancaster University and lead to the award of joint Sunway and Lancaster degrees. They have all have been approved by the Ministry of Higher Education and the Malaysian Qualifications Agency (MQA).

Two of these masters degrees were developed in collaboration with the renowned Lancaster University Management School (LUMS). LUMS is one of the top ten management schools in the UK and it has been given a six star rating by the UK Quality Assurance Agency. The other masters degree was developed jointly with Lancaster's distinguished departments of Computing and Communication Systems.
